

REAL ESTATE VETERANS FORM
CHRISTIANSON PATTERSON COURTNEY & ASSOCIATES
New Residential Real Estate Company Launches with 30 Realtors®

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (September 14, 2012) --- Real estate veterans Ellen Christianson, Tommy Patterson and Richard Courtney have formed the residential real estate company of Christianson Patterson Courtney & Associates, announced Ellen Christianson, principal broker. Patterson will serve as managing broker and Courtney as director of sales.

The three principals are joined by 27 Realtors and four office management professionals, all previously with French Christianson Patterson & Associates.

Christianson Patterson Courtney & Associates will occupy the former French Christianson Patterson office space at 4535 Harding Road in West Nashville. The new company is renovating the space to incorporate the latest office design and technology.

“This is an exciting time for all of us at Christianson Patterson Courtney & Associates,” said Christianson. “Our agents are accomplished real estate professionals with an average of 14 years of experience in the Nashville market. Together, we have created a true agent- and client-centric real estate company – one that offers agents one of the most attractive commission structures in the city and is staffed to provide clients with the highest level of service throughout the transaction.”
